From Me to You

Pranams!

Here is something for us to ponder upon: In the Bhagvad Gita, Lord Krishna calls Arjuna a hypocrite and a coward because of his refusal to fight with his friends and relatives pleading that non-resistance was the highest ideal of love. One can infer that the two extremes are alike in any given situation.

When the vibrations of light are too slow, we do not see them, nor do we see them when they are too rapid. So it is with sound; we do not hear it when the pitch is too low or very high. Same is true for resistance and non-resistance.

Buddha gave up his throne and all the associated perks, that was true renunciation; but do we even talk about renunciation in the case of a beggar who has nothing to renounce? Hence we must always be prudent and cautious about what we really mean when we speak of this non-resistance and ideal love. It is most important to know whether we have the power of resistance or not. Then, having the power, if we renounce it and do not resist, we are doing a grand act of love; but if we cannot resist and yet, try to deceive ourselves into the belief that we are actuated by motives of the highest love, we are doing the exact opposite and fooling ourselves and the world.

Activity always means resistance. Resist all evils, mental and physical; and when one has succeeded in resisting, calmness will result ending ultimately in self-surrender. Let us strive to be true Karma Yogis and do our bit for our beloved Mandir in whatever shape, form, and capacity that we are endowed with.

Yours,

Ramesh Viswanathan

Balvihar by Sriram Kiron
OUR BALVIHAR SESSION OF FEBRUARY 22, 2015

We celebrated "Shivaratri" in our balvihar session of February 22, 2015. Shree Sudhir ji, one of our Berlin Temple Priests, came to help us perform Shiv puja. We were all given a puja thaali which had haldi, kumkum, flower petals, an apple for offering, yellow rice, water, betel nut representing Lord Ganesh ji and a small rock to represent Lord Shiva. We performed Shiv puja being guided by Sudhir ji. He explained the significance of performing different things in a puja, and why we do it. The Shiv puja went off very well. The whole place was filled with good vibrations as we chanted various shlokas and "Om Namah Shivaya" chantings. The puja went on for the duration of the whole Balvihar session and it was definitely a very calming experience. After puja, we went to the cafeteria to find a hot, Indian lunch awaiting us.

Youth Group by Rashmi Devadiga

The Youth group met again on March 8th at Cherokee High school. Praveen Uncle was not here, so class was run by Lalit Uncle. Rather than what we normally do, we took time to talk about our future, more specifically college and jobs. We discussed how we should have passion for what we do, so that we do our best. We also talked about what problems we can face if we decide to change our career after we have already started. This topic then led into a conversation about skills that we need to have, such as communication, in order to do our job properly and how important it is for us to build these skills over the years. After our long and meaningful discussion, we headed down for Aarthi and finished our session with pizza. Thanks to Lalit Uncle for a great class!

Mata ki Chowki Saturday April 11th 2015 3 pm

Mata Ki Chowki or Mata Ka Jagran or Mata Ka Jagrata or bhagwati jagran is a yagya done by devotees (bhakts) for their elevation.

Mata ki chowki is a small part of "Mata ka Jagran". The difference is only this can be done at any time and the katha "Tara Rani ki Katha" may or may not be recited. The Mata ki Chowki can be done on any occasion like engagement, birthday, anniversary, wedding (marriage), barsi, mundan, kua poojan, or can be done for rescuing from pain and misery or removing any kind obstacles in their life etc. Most of the people host Mata ki Chowki during Navratri, Durga pooja, Kartik Mass, Ganesh mahotsav, and all other festivals. "Mata Ki Chowki" starts with Ganesh Poojan followed by "Jyoti Prachanda" enlightenment of Jyoti. The bhakts sing devotional songs (mata ki bhente), prayers, bhajans, mantras etc in glory of Goddess Durga. Devotees offer maiya ka shingar chunari to mata ji. At last the whole event is sampurna by offering bhent, aarti and sampurna ardas.

What is it?

When is it?

Mata Ki Chowki is celebrated on the second Saturday April 11th 2015 @ 3:00 PM at the Hindu Mandir, 25 E. Taunton Ave., Berlin NJ

What Blessings do devotees receive?

By singing devotional bhajans (songs) towards the Divine Mother we receive and imbibe the motherly nature, creativity, the Energy and radiance she showers on the cosmos. Music elevates the soul and helps us focus our senses towards the Divine, in unison.

What are the events during the Puja?

Durga Puja

Bhajans

Offering of Chunni – Sacred Cloth to Durga Devi

Bhog – Offering of Food to Durga Devi

Offering to girls – a unique offering to girls under 10, giving them gifts and sweets with the understanding that the Divine Mother would be present in the form of a child.

Vallabh Jayanti Celebration on April 19, 2015

Shri Mahaprabhuji is the founder of religious sect called Pushtimarg. He was born in the year 1478 A.D. at a Champaranya village near Raipur in Madhya Pradesh. He is one of the foremost Indian philosophers taking the rank amongst the first class Acharyas who has expounded the school of Shuddha-advaita. Vallabhacharya heralded a new era of Bhakti-Marga, which teaches unswerving love toward God admitting everyone in the fold, irrespective of sex, cast or nationality.

Pushti Marga, the path of grace as founded by Shri Vallabhacharya is very easy to follow as a way of life by common people. Once you commit yourself to God by ritual of “Brahma-Sambanth”, God takes care of you unconditionally. He takes you to Pushti Marga by his teaching of Shroddas- Grantha. In Pushti Margs, Bhakti is not a means, but an end. It is also called Premlakshana Bhakti.

Shri Vallabhacharya’s other works include Anu-Bhashya (Commentary on Brahma Sutra), tattva Dipa Nibandha and Subodhini (Commentary on Bhagavata). Vallabha regards Shrimad Bhagvata as the most authentic work on knowledge of God.

Temple will celebrate Vallabh Jayanti on Sunday, April 19, 2015 3:00 PM to 6:00 PM. We will do Pusti marg’s Yamunasthaka and other “PĀTHA” followed by melodious Kirtans. Mahaprasad will be served after the Aarti @ 6:00 PM.
